

QUILT SHOW FOCUS

Magic of Cloth, Act VII Silver Threads, Friday November 1 & Saturday November 2, 2019

Northcott Challenge

Fabric Kits will be available at the September meeting. There will be 3 Fat Quarters for $12. We are looking forward to seeing what is on the table.

Raffle Quilt

Our Raffle Quilt, shown here to the right, for this show, Thank You to Karen Turcott and Janet Slater and their committee members for a fantastic job. The Quilt measures an astounding 102" x 110" and is just gorgeous! I would paint my room for this beauty!!!

Bed Turning

We will be showcasing all Guild Related Quilts and items from the past 25 years. So, made something in a QBA, participated in a Guild block swap? Anything you made as a direct result of your membership in our Guild will be considered for the Bed Turning.

Members' Boutique

The committee will accept DONATED items such as magazines, books, patterns, packaged fabric, wall hangings, table runners, pot holders, bags, ornaments, cards, etc. They can be knit or crocheted as well as quilted.

CONSIGNMENT items will be accepted. Fees will be 15% and may include your own hand dyed fabrics, wall hangings, table runners, pot holders, bags, ornaments, cards, your own pattern designs, etc. Items may be quilted, knit or crochet. Quilts hanging in the show may be sold on consignment, as well.

Further details available. Committee members Leah Mitchell (Chairperson), Val Ashbourne (Consignment Chairperson), Daphne Every, Louise Cornelius, Sabina Auburger

Volunteers

Always needed, always appreciated!

Please keep your schedule clear for the week and weekend of the quilt show. We'll need all hands on deck. Luncheon will be provided on Thursday setup day. Sign up will begin in September of 2019. Sign up early and spare your coordinators unwanted stress. :)

Once again, Thank you for participating on a committee and/or volunteering during the show

Kim and Yvonne
